i.,celu	Approved For Release 2000/05/18 : CIA-RDP82-00457R006000210007-9
1	CLASSIFICATION SECRET-CONTROL/US OFFICIALS CREAT
UNTRY	Soviet Zone of Germany REPORT NO. 1
PIC	Volkspolizei in the Schwerin Area
(1X	OFVA A
LUATION . K1A 'E. OF COI	And the Additional of the Company of
1A c obtain	EL DATE PREPARED IN Oct, 1950
ERENCES
ES	ENCLOSURES (NO A TYPE)
	RETURN TO CIA
er – mesolog districa a sak mendaga meja	LIBRARY
ala del	NATION MERCANDO PROCESSOR OF THE SECOND COMMEND OF THE CONTROL OF
ers on their contraction and contraction	PER PROBLEM CONTROL OF THE PROBLEM OF A CONTROL OF THE PROBLEM CONTROL OF THE PROBLEM OF THE PRO
OURCE 5X1X
X1X 5X1X
2.	was used exclusively for storing ammunition of the VP school and the VP units stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary barracks installation near Schwerias housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training.
2.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel.
	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary barracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training.
3.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary barracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training. More than 1,000 police were quartered in the Sternbuchholz camp in August 1950. They received political indoctrination and were trained with infantry weapons. VP Inspekteur Kroll, (fmu), was commandant of the VP school in Sternbuchholz; he was 54 years old, lived at 31 Bornhoeferstrasse and used passenger car
3.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary barracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training. More than 1,000 police were quartered in the Sternbuchholz camp in August 1950. They received political indoctrination and were trained with infantry weapons. VP Inspekteur Kroll, (fmu), was commandant of the VP school in Sternbuchholz; he was 54 years old, lived at 31 Bornhoeferstrasse and used passenger car 25X1B VP personnel were observed for the first time in early August 1950 to be quartered in the undamaged installations of the former ammunition depot at Goerries, 2 or 3 km west of Schwerin. Local residents said that a newly established VP school was located there.
3. 4. 5.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary barracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training. More than 1,000 police were quartered in the Sternbuchholz camp in August 1950. They received political indoctrination and were trained with infantry weapons. VP Inspekteur Kroll, (fmu), was commandant of the VP school in Sternbuchholz; he was 54 years old, lived at 31 Bornhoeferstrasse and used passenger car 25×1B VP personnel were observed for the first time in early August 1950 to be quartered in the undamaged installations of the former ammunition depot at Goerries, 2 or 3 km west of Schwerin. Local residents said that a newly established VP school was located there. On 7 August 1950, 200 to 300 German police were seen in the northern section of Alte Grenadier Kaserne on Guestrowerstrasse, Schwerin. The vacant barracks buildings were being remodeled. A new building was being constructed in the
3. 4. 5.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary barracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training. More than 1,000 police were quartered in the Sternbuchholz camp in August 1950. They received political indoctrination and were trained with infantry weapons. VP Inspekteur Kroll, (fmu), was commandant of the VP school in Sternbuchholz; he was 54 years old, lived at 31 Bornhoeferstrasse and used passenger car 25×1B VP personnel were observed for the first time in early August 1950 to be quartered in the undamaged installations of the former ammunition depot at Goerries, 2 or 3 km west of Schwerin. Local residents said that a newly established VP school was located there. On 7 August 1950, 200 to 300 German police were seen in the northern section of Alte Grenadier Kaserne on Guestrowerstrasse, Schwerin. The vacant barracks buildings were being remodeled. A new building was being constructed in the
3. 4. 5.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary barracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training. More than 1,000 police were quartered in the Sternbuchholz camp in August 1950. They received political indoctrination and were trained with infantry weapons. VP Inspekteur Kroll, (fmu), was commandant of the VP school in Sternbuchholz; he was 54 years old, lived at 31 Bornhoeferstrasse and used passenger car 25×1B VP personnel were observed for the first time in early August 1950 to be quartered in the undamaged installations of the former ammunition depot at Goerries, 2 or 3 km west of Schwerin. Local residents said that a newly established VP school was located there. On 7 August 1950, 200 to 300 German police were seen in the northern section of Alte Grenadier Kaserne on Guestrowerstrasse, Schwerin. The vacant barracks buildings were being remodeled. A new building was being constructed in the
3. 4. 5.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary barracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training. More than 1,000 police were quartered in the Sternbuchholz camp in August 1950. They received political indoctrination and were trained with infantry weapons. VP Inspekteur Kroll, (fmu), was commandant of the VP school in Sternbuchholz; he was 54 years old, lived at 31 Bornhoeferstrasse and used passenger car 25×1B VP personnel were observed for the first time in early August 1950 to be quartered in the undamaged installations of the former ammunition depot at Goerries, 2 or 3 km west of Schwerin. Local residents said that a newly established VP school was located there. On 7 August 1950, 200 to 300 German police were seen in the northern section of Alte Grenadier Kaserne on Guestrowerstrasse, Schwerin. The vacant barracks buildings were being remodeled. A new building was being constructed in the
3. 4. 5.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary berracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training. More than 1,000 police were quartered in the Sternbuchholz camp in August 1950. They received political indoctrination and were trained with infantry weapons. VP Inspekteur Kroll, (fmu), was commandant of the VP school in Sternbuchholz; he was 54 years old, lived at 31 Bornhoeferstrasse and used passenger car 25×18 VP personnel were observed for the first time in early August 1950 to be quartered in the undamaged installations of the former ammunition depot at Goerries, 2 or 3 km west of Schwerin. Local residents said that a newly established VP school was located there. On 7 August 1950, 200 to 300 German police were seen in the northern section of Alte Grenadier Kaserne on Guestroverstrasse, Schwerin. The vacant barracks buildings were being remodeled. A new building was being constructed in the center of the installation. No heavy weapons were observed with the police.
3. 4. 5.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary berracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training. 2 More than 1,000 police were quartered in the Sternbuchholz camp in August 1950. They received political indoctrination and were trained with infantry weapons. VP Inspekteur Kroll, (fmu), was commandant of the VP school in Sternbuchholz; he was 54 years old, lived at 31 Bornhoeferstrasse and used passenger car 25×18 VP personnel were observed for the first time in early August 1950 to be quartered in the undamaged installations of the former ammunition depot at Goerries, 2 or 3 km west of Schwerin. Local residents said that a newly established VP school was located there. On 7 August 1950, 200 to 300 German police were seen in the northern section of Alte Grenadier Kaserne on Guestrowerstrasse, Schwerin. The vacant barracks buildings were being remodeled. A new building was being constructed in the center of the installation. No heavy weapons were observed with the police.
3. 4. 5.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary berracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training. More than 1,000 police were quartered in the Sternbuchholz camp in August 1950. They received political indoctrination and were trained with infantry weapons. VP Inspekteur Kroll, (fmu), was commandant of the VP school in Sternbuchholz; he was 54 years old, lived at 31 Bornhoeferstrasse and used passenger car 25×1B VP personnel were observed for the first time in early August 1950 to be quartered in the undamaged installations of the former ammunition depot at Goerries, 2 or 3 km west of Schwerin. Local residents said that a newly established VP school was located there. On 7 August 1950, 200 to 300 German police were seen in the northern section of Alte Grenadier Kaserne on Guestroverstrasse, Schwerin. The vacant berracks buildings were being remodeled. A new building was being constructed in the center of the installation. No heavy weapons were observed with the police. Deemment Ne
3.4.5.6.	stationed in Schwerin (M 54/T 46). The guard detail at the depot was composed of VP personnel. On 26 July 1950 the Sternbuchholz temporary berracks installation near Schwerigs housed about 900 young police who were undergoing infantry training. More than 1,000 police were quartered in the Sternbuchholz camp in August 1950. They received political indoctrination and were trained with infantry weapons. VP Inspekteur Kroll, (fmu), was commandant of the VP school in Sternbuchholz; he was 54 years old, lived at 31 Bornhoeferstrasse and used passenger car 25×18 VP personnel were observed for the first time in early August 1950 to be quartered in the undamaged installations of the former ammunition depot at Goerries, 2 or 3 km west of Schwerin. Local residents said that a newly established VP school was located there. On 7 August 1950, 200 to 300 German police were seen in the northern section of Alte Grenadier Kaserne on Guestrowerstrasse, Schwerin. The vacent barracks buildings were being remodeled. A new building was being constructed in the center of the installation. No heavy weapons were observed with the police. Deement Ne.